This is a joint press release by InPost S.A. ("InPost" or the "Company") and IS Iris Lux Bidco S.à r.l. ("Bidco" or the "Offeror") in connection with the right of the Offeror to squeeze-out the holders of the Remaining Shares (as defined below) pursuant to Article 15 of the Luxembourg Takeover Law (as defined below) following the public offer (the "Offer", together with the transactions contemplated in connection therewith the "Transaction") by the Offeror for all the issued and outstanding ordinary shares (ISIN LU2290522684) in the capital of InPost (the "Shares", and each holder of such Shares, a "Shareholder"). This press release does not constitute an offer, or any solicitation of any offer, to buy or subscribe for any securities in the Company. Any offer will be made only by means of an offer memorandum (the "Offer Memorandum") approved by the Dutch Authority for the Financial Markets (Autoriteit Financiële Markten) (the "AFM") which has been published on 22 May 2026, and subject to the restrictions set forth therein. Terms not defined in this joint press release will have the meaning as set forth in the Offer Memorandum. This joint press release is not for release, publication or distribution, in whole or in part, in or into, directly or indirectly, any jurisdiction in which such release, publication or distribution would be unlawful.

Bidco exercises its right of squeeze-out following the Offer for InPost

Amsterdam & Luxembourg, 17 November 2026 – Following the successful completion of the Offer, Bidco holds 492,395,408 Shares, representing approximately 98.49% of InPost's issued and outstanding share capital. Bidco hereby announces that it is exercising its right of squeeze-out pursuant to Article 15 (2) of the Luxembourg law of 19 May 2006 on takeover bids (the "Luxembourg Takeover Law") to acquire the remaining 7,525,000 Shares that have not been tendered under the Offer (the "Remaining Shares").

Terms of the squeeze-out

Price per Remaining Share

The Remaining Shares will be acquired at the Consideration offered by Bidco under the Offer (i.e., EUR 15.60 per Remaining Share). The CSSF has raised no objection that the Consideration offered by Bidco under the Offer (i.e., EUR 15.60 per Remaining Share) constitutes a fair price for the purposes of the squeeze-out proceedings in accordance with Article 15 (5) of the Luxembourg Takeover Law.

Delisting

As a result of the Offeror holding more than 95% of the Shares, the Shares have delisted from Euronext Amsterdam on 23 October 2026. Accordingly, the last day of trading of the Shares was 22 October 2026.

Transfer of the Remaining Shares to Bidco and payment of the Consideration

Bidco will acquire the Remaining Shares by operation of law. The record date for the squeeze-out of the Remaining Shares will be 18 November 2026 with settlement and payment on 19 November 2026. Bidco cannot guarantee that Shareholders holding the Remaining Shares through an Admitted Institution will actually receive payment on 19 November 2026. Ownership of the Remaining Shares will be transferred to Bidco on 19 November 2026 against payment by Bidco of the Consideration, namely EUR 15.60 per Remaining Share and EUR 117,390,000 in aggregate for all the Remaining Shares.

For the purpose of the transfer of the ownership of the Remaining Shares to Bidco, ABN AMRO Bank N.V., Corporate Broking and Issuer Services HQ7212 (corporate.broking@nl.abnamro.com), Gustav Mahlerlaan 10, 1082 PP, Amsterdam, the Netherlands (the "Settlement Agent") will on 19 November 2026 transfer all the Remaining Shares to Bidco.

Actions to be taken

Holders of Remaining Shares do not need to take any action.

Notice to Company shareholders in the United States

The Offer has been made for the Shares of the Company, a public limited company incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg with its Shares listed on Euronext Amsterdam. It is important that U.S. shareholders of the Company understand that the Offer and any related offer documents are subject to Dutch disclosure and procedural requirements and Luxembourg corporate law, which are different from those of the United States. U.S. shareholders of the Company are advised that the Company's Shares are not listed on a U.S. securities exchange and that the Company is not subject to the periodic reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), and is not required to, and does not, file any reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") thereunder.

The Offer has been made in the United States in compliance with, and in reliance on, the exemption provided by Rule 14d-1(d), known as "Tier II" exemption, under the Exchange Act and otherwise in accordance with the requirements of Dutch law. Accordingly, the Offer has been subject to certain disclosure and other procedural requirements, including with respect to the Offer timetable and settlement procedures that are different from those applicable under U.S. domestic tender offer procedures and laws.

The receipt of cash pursuant to the Offer by a U.S. holder of the Company's Shares may be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes and under applicable state and local, as well as foreign and other tax laws. Each holder of the Shares is urged to consult their independent professional advisor immediately regarding the tax consequences of acceptance of the Offer.

It may be difficult for U.S. holders of Shares to enforce any rights and claims arising out of the U.S. federal securities laws, since the Company is located in a country other than the United States, and some or all of its officers and directors may be residents of a country other than the United States. U.S. holders of Shares may not be able to sue a non-U.S. company or its officers or directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of U.S. securities laws. Further, it may be difficult to compel a non-U.S. company and its affiliates to subject themselves to a U.S. court's judgment.

Neither the SEC nor any U.S. state securities commission has approved or disapproved or passed judgment upon the merits or fairness of the Transaction or determined whether this press release is adequate, accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offence in the United States.
